INTERVIEW SUMMARY

Sir:

This is to record, in accordance with the provisions of 37 CFR §1.133(b) and MPEP §713.04, the substance of the telephone interviews conducted between Examiner Nguyen and the undersigned attorney on or about June 1-2, 2009. These interviews were initiated by the Examiner.

During the interviews, the Examiner and the undersigned attorney discussed possible claim amendments (reflected in the Examiner's Amendment in the Notice of Allowance mailed June 19, 2009, and in the emails between the undersigned attorney and the Examiner that accompany this Interview Summary) to place the claims in condition for allowance. Issues involved with these claim amendments concerned incorporating subject matter of claim 37 into the independent claims, and various claim amendments to address 35 USC §§101 and 112, second paragraph concerns raised by the Examiner. As a result of the interviews, it was agreed that the Examiner would enter the Examiner's Amendment to place the application in condition for allowance.<sup>1</sup>

It is respectfully requested that the Examiner consider the within Interview Summary and request any additional information and/or clarification if deemed appropriate.

In the event that the Examiner believes that a further interview would advance the prosecution of this application, the Examiner is invited to call the undersigned attorney to initiate a further interview.

<sup>1</sup> In agreeing to make these claim amendments, Applicant is clarifying the claimed subject matter and is not acquiescing as to the validity and/or correctness of the rejections of the subject application made by the Examiner, or of the necessity of such amendments to render the application allowable. These claim amendments are not intended to, and do not result in disclaimer, waiver, and/or estoppel vis-à-vis claim scope and/or equivalents.
